

OUR GREEN AND PLEASANT TOWN

FONA's first audio drama podcast brings the stories and accounts of Nottinghamshire's Victorian residents and the creation of the town's green spaces to life.

Available on FONA's YouTube channel via our website,
www.fona.org.uk

Or to listen on Spotify follow the link:

<https://anchor.fm/friends-of-nottinghamshire-archives>

Episode 1: *Towards A New Nottingham – explores the conditions in Nottingham prior to 1845, and why green spaces were so necessary.

Episode 2: *Green Lungs - looks at the creation of the first four public walks, Queen's Walk, Elm Avenue, Robin Hood Chase and Corporation Oaks.

Episode 3: *Honour & Ornament – delves into Nottingham's Arboretum park's radical beginnings.

Episode 4: *The Forest Recreation Ground - tells the story of the Forest's development and the racier attractions to be found there.

